

Washington Birder 2014 List Reports

Many of you knew Pete Fahey or recognize his name from Tweeters. We received this wonderful note from a close birding friend of Pete's that we want to share:

"We lost an avid county birder in 2014 with the passing of Pete Fahey.

Pete had an ABA list over 700, which was built while living in New Jersey, California (where he still holds the Fresno County big year record), and Washington State.

In 2013, he left a major accomplishment unreported in Washington Birder, with 222 birds seen in King County during the year, including the official county first for Wild Turkey.

In true Pete fashion, when asked during his Fresno County year how he added so many good birds to his list, he would simply reply, "I go out and look for them!"

Get out there and look for them in 2015, everyone!"

2014 County Life List Accomplishments

Going over 100, 150, 175 and 200 on Life Lists in all 39 Counties

After an 8 year endeavor, Tom Mansfield became the first person to tick 200 species in every Washington county. With his County Life List at or over 200 in the state's other 38 counties, Tom was sitting at 199 for Wahkiakum. On a September 27, 2014 trip to Whites Island in the Columbia River near Cathlamet, Tom and companions found a flock of endangered "streaked" Horned Larks, making it 200 for Wahkiakum and reaching his historic goal. Congratulations to Tom on this significant accomplishment!

Congratulations to MaryFrancis Mathis who went over 175 species in 2014

Congratulations to Guy McWethy who went over 150 species during 2014

Congratulations to both Tim Brennan, who went over 100 species in 2014, and Alan Richards, a longtime state birder, who reached 100 species during 2000

Four County "Highest Ever" Year Lists Were Reported for 2014

Congratulations to

Matthew Moskwik/Pend Oreille who saw 214 species, 11 more than the previous record

Scott Atkinson/Skagit, a record increase of 5 species, for a total of 257

Chris Warlow/Thurston who broke a long held 2001 record by 6 species for a total of 218

MerryLynn Denny/Walla Walla, who broke her own 2012 record by 1, for a new total of 253
